PUBLIC SAFETY UPDATE

The Syracuse Police Department (SPD) has announced two arrests in connection with one of the recent armed robberies near Syracuse University. The two individuals have been charged with a Sept. 3 robbery along Smith Lane. Both suspects are currently lodged at the Justice Center in downtown Syracuse.

The SPD is continuing to investigate the connection between the two suspects in custody and the other robberies that have occurred in the University area over the past month.

The Department of Public Safety remains on heightened alert, and community members are encouraged to take advantage of the safety services being offered and to follow the crime prevention tips that have been outlined in the recent communications from the department (<http://insidesu.syr.edu/2009/10/01/public-safety-update-from-chief-tony-callisto/>).
